Open Hands To Honor Community Members at Open House

(Santa Fe, NM): Open Hands will be hosting a summer open house on July 20, 2008, at their offices located at 2976 Rodeo Park Drive East from 12 – 2:00 pm. As part of the festivities, Jim McLaren and Gina Montoya of Santa Fe will be honored for their inspiration to the community.

According to Lisa Bronowicz, Executive Director of Open Hands, “We would like to invite Santa Fe to find out what Open Hands means to over 10,000 New Mexicans each year. Everyone is welcome to tour our facilities and to hear about two individuals who have overcome tremendous challenges.” Admission is free of charge.

Selected works of art from Open Hands Adult Day Service clients will also be featured. RSVP’s are encouraged but not required. For RSVP or more information, please call (505) 428-2346 or visit www.openhands.org.

Open Hands has been helping the elderly, disabled and economically disadvantaged to live with dignity since 1977. Programs include the Adult Day Service program, award-winning Home Safety Program, financial assistance, The Job Shop handyman services and the 851 Exchange Thrift Store located at 851 San Mateo in Santa Fe.
